OVERVIEW

More than 600 global attendees, sponsors and panelists attended the Virtual EB-5 & Uglobal Immigration Expo "China Time Zone" on April 16-17.

The online expo offered high-quality education from industry leaders and high-tech networking among global participants.

The featured keynote speaker was U.S. Senator Rand Paul (R-KY), a long-time EB-5 supporter who just recovered from the coronavirus. He shared his vision about the future of the industry and about this personal struggle in the midst of the pandemic.

Attendees from around the world – including high net worth individuals, migration agents, developers, immigration attorneys, wealth managers and industry service providers – networked online from the convenience of their own home! Professionals had the opportunity to step into a virtual conference world where they could visit virtual sponsor booths in the exhibitor hall and watch educational panels in the auditorium. They could also gather in the virtual expo lounge to network further and share information.

Distinguished panelists shared their insight about the latest legislative changes with global citizenship by investment programs and residency by investment programs, including United States, Australia, Cyprus, the Caribbean, Malta, Greece, Ireland, New Zealand, Portugal, Turkey and the UK.

"Thank you for the fantastic Virtual EB-5 & Uglobal Immigration Expo. This expo was my first virtual one. While I am not as technologically savvy as our team, I felt comfortable at this expo and was able to connect with a few potential clients—great time and money savings too. This virtual expo felt as if it was live. I got tired of walking as if I were there!"
